

Master of Arts

The Master of Arts (MA) curricula integrate an in-depth study of the Bible with basic historical, theological and practical disciplines critical to developing professional skills for ministry in the 21st century. All MA programs include a sequence of CORE and ELECTIVE 3-credit hour courses designed to cover all 66 books of the Bible over a 2-year course of study offered during two standard semesters per year, with additional in-depth studies of numerous biblical books. The MA programs are available for both FULL-TIME students (registered for 9 or more credit hours per semester) and PART-TIME students. Auditing may be available for some courses on a limited basis.

Master of Arts in Biblical History and Archaeology (MABHA)

60-credit hours

This program offers students opportunities to study under recognized leaders in archaeology and related fields. Students strategically and comprehensively study all 66 books of the Bible; learn basic historical, theological, and practical knowledge critical for serving in professional ministry leadership; and experientially explore basic archaeological history, theories, and methodologies. Goals include the following:

1. Training in basic archaeological background and methodology, and modeling using data for both apologetic and hermeneutical purposes.
2. Exposing the broader public to the synchronistic relationship between archaeological data and biblical texts.
3. Addressing critical research issues in biblical scholarship through scientific excavations in Bible lands.

Master of Arts in Biblical Languages and Culture (MABLC)

54-credit hours

This program offers students opportunities to strategically and comprehensively study all 66 books of the Bible; learn basic historical, theological, and practical knowledge critical for serving in professional ministry leadership; and experientially explore and practice ministry skills related to in-depth knowledge of biblical languages and culture.

Master of Arts in Biblical Studies (MABS)

60-credit hours

This program offers students opportunities to strategically and comprehensively study all 66 books of the Bible; learn basic historical, theological, and practical knowledge critical for serving in professional ministry leadership; and experientially explore and practice a broad range of ministry skills.

Master of Arts in Church History and Theology (MACHT)

48-credit hours

This program offers students opportunities to strategically and comprehensively study all 66 books of the Bible; learn basic historical, theological, and practical knowledge critical for serving in professional ministry leadership; and experientially explore and practice ministry skills related to in-depth knowledge of church history and theology.
